

STATEHOOD DOOMED

Quay's Pet Measure Is Likely to Be Tabled.

Special to The Journal:
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A bitter fight over the Statehood bill is now in progress. Senator Quay has votes enough pledged to insure the passage of the measure but the Republican leaders will not permit the vote. In the Senate today strong words were used by Quay, who accused Beveridge of delaying the vote. From all appearances it now looks as though this bill would take the same course that it has year after year and New Mexico and Arizona would still continue to be territories under the fostering care of the general government.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The manager of the Marconi Telegraph Company said today that station on land would soon be set up and communication established between New York and San Francisco.

NORTH CAROLINA SENATORS

A Lively Contest Expected For Senator Pritchard's Place

Special to The Journal:
RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 20.—Keen interest is manifested in the session of the State legislature which met today to elect a successor to United States Senator Pritchard. A number of active candidates are in the field, including Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury; Cyrus B. Watson, late Democratic candidate for Governor, and Julian S. Carr, a millionaire tobacco manufacturer. The members of the Assembly are so divided among the various candidates that a deadlock is among the probabilities. In this evening, according to an interesting rumor, former Senator Matt W. Ransom may enter the contest in an attempt to gather enough votes from each faction to insure his election.

Special to The Journal:
BERLIN, Jan. 20.—Chancellor Von Beolow made a statement on the Venezuelan situation in the Reichstag today in which he said the blockade would not be raised until the peace negotiations at Washington have assurances that the trouble would be amicably settled.

YUKON MURDERERS TO HANG

The Canadian Cabinet Refuse to Interfere in the Case

Special to The Journal:
OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 20.—The Cabinet having declined to interfere in the cases of the Yukon murderers, Ed Labelle and Victor Fournier, the two will be hanged today at Dawson. About the end of last June the two men murdered three of their companions for their money and put their bodies in the Yukon. Labelle and Fournier then went to the United States side, where they murdered another man. They were tried at Dawson in November and found guilty.

A SENSATION SPRUNG

Lesser Claims $5000 Was Offered For His Vote on Important Question

Special to The Journal:
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Senator Lessler, Democratic member from North Carolina, created a sensation today by making the charge before the Committee on Naval Affairs that he had been offered five thousand dollars to vote for the construction of additional submarine torpedo boats. A special committee was appointed to investigate the matter and held a secret session this afternoon.

NEVADA STATE LEGISLATURE

Everything Moving Along Smoothly and Quietly at the State Capital.

Special to The Journal:

CARSON, Jan. 20.—There was but little doing of interest in the capital city today.

The disappointed applicants for positions in the Senate and Assembly had for the most part returned to their respective homes to resume their usual vocations in life.

The chief subject of talk and one which is now uppermost in the minds of the many politicians who are gathered here is the wardenship. The State board are divided on this question and what the final result will be is a question, as it is a desire to center on some one who will be agreeable to those with whom he will have to deal. It is probably that this question will be settled in a few days, and may be as early as tomorrow. It is safe to say that the selection will be made with due care and consideration.

Senator Newlands is in the city talking with the representatives on subjects relative to National legislation and incidentally being consulted in relation to State affairs.

IN THE SENATE

The Second Day of the Twenty-First Session

Promptly at 11 a. m. the session was called to order by Lieut.-Governor Allen, after which a prayer was offered by the Chaplain.

Senate Bill No. 2, granting A. G. Dawley, the Clerk of Elko county, a leave of absence for four months, was referred to the Elko county members. A message was received from the Secretary of State with a package containing the following:

The ballots and depositions with appurtenant papers in the matter of Ernst, the contestee for the position of State Senator from Churchill county.

A statement that the Hon. Thomas P. Hawley received 1984 votes for United States Senator at the last general election. No other candidate named on the ballots.

Also a statement that the vote cast at the last general election relative to amending the State Constitution so as to tax patented mines stood as follows: For the amendment, 3945; against it, 614.

After some discussion of preliminary business and workings the Senate took a recess until 11 a. m. tomorrow.

IN THE ASSEMBLY

The Second Day of the Twenty-First Session

Speaker Wilson called the Assembly to order at 11 o'clock.

On roll call a quorum was found to be present.

Mr. Whitacre asked for leave of absence for his colleague, Mr. Lothrop, who was called to Lyon county, by a death in his family. Leave was granted.

Rev. H. H. McCreery invoked the blessing.

The Ormsby county delegation reported that they had fulfilled the mission in interviewing the various clergymen of Carson and inviting them to alternate as Chaplain at the opening of each day's session.

For some mysterious reason Cooke, of Washoe, opposed the adoption of the report and moved that it be laid on the table. The motion was lost, and the report of the committee adopted.

Mr. Denton offered a resolution providing for an appropriation of $20 to each member for the purchase of newspapers, stamps, stationery, etc., the same to be paid out of the legislative fund.

A motion by Mr. Griffin that the matter be laid over pending the passage of the appropriation bill was lost, and one by Mr. Holmes that the resolution be passed was carried.

The first bill was introduced in the Assembly by the Speaker by leave. The title was: "An act to prevent the herding of sheep on the land or possessory claims of other persons, or of herding or grazing them within two miles of the house of the owner of such possessory claims."

The bill took the regular course and was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Secretary of State having appeared with an armful of vetoed bills from the last session, Mr. Whitacre moved they be taken up and some disposition made of them.

The first to be read by the Clerk was the veto on Assembly Concurrent Resolution, No. 12, introduced in the last session by Hon. Thos. Skaggs.

Mr. Skaggs was on his feet to again defend his resolution which provided for an amendment to the Constitution making patented mines taxable property. He contended that Governor Sadler had no more right to veto the resolution than had the postmaster or justice of peace of Carson and moved that it be made a special order for Monday, January 28th.

The other vetoed bills were A. B., No. 79, 120 and 103, defining the time of commencing civil actions; A. B., No. 101, "An act for the better preservation of court records and prescribing penalties for its infringement; A. B., No. 131, "An act regulating the fee for filing articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State. These bills were all made special order for Friday at 2:30 p. m.

The following message was received from the Secretary of State relative to the Senatorial election.

Office of the Secretary of State, Carson, Nev., Jan. 19, 1903
To the Honorable the Assembly:

I, W. G. Douglass, Secretary of the State of Nevada, do hereby certify that at the general election held in the State of Nevada, on the 4th day of November, A. D., 1902, Thomas P. Hawley, the Republican nominee for Representative in the Senate of the United States from the State of Nevada, received 1984 votes; there being no other candidate than said Thomas P. Hawley for the position hereinbefore referred to.

Yours respectfully,
W. G. DOUGLASS,
Secretary of State.

The message was placed on file.

A message from the Secretary of State was also received announcing the vote on Constitutional Amendment relative to taxing patented mines. For the amendment, 3945; against, 614. Secretary was unable to state whether the amendment had been legally carried and referred the Assembly to Sec. 1, Article 16, of the Constitution.

The message was placed on file. Assembly took a recess on motion of M. Skaggs, until 11 o'clock tomorrow.

WEDDING IN HIGH CIRCLES

A Greek Marriage Was Celebrated in Washington for the First Time.

Special to The Journal:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The privileged few who were invited to the Connecticut Avenue residence of Paymaster James Hoy, U. S. N., today were interested spectators at the first Greek marriage ever celebrated in Washington. The contracting parties were Miss Martha Hoy, daughter of the Paymaster and Mrs. Hoy, and Pierre Regestvensky, Second Secretary of the Russian Embassy.

The ceremony, which took place at noon, was conducted in full accordance with the marriage rites of the Greek church. Father Horotowsky, pastor of the Greek church of St. Nicholas in New York City, officiated. In the parlors of the Hoy residence a temporary altar had been erected, and it was beautifully decorated with lilies and roses. There was no nuptial mass, but earlier in the day Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, and Mr. Regestvensky and his bride-to-be attended mass and received Holy Communion.

At the marriage ceremony Count Cassini acted as the father of honor, and represented both the Czar and the aged father of the bridegroom. The Ambassador, clothed in full court dress, led the bridal procession, bearing on an embroidered cushion two gold rings and two silver rings. In advance of him walked the priest swinging a burning censor. Count Cassini was followed by the bride-elect bearing the two silver crowns used in the marriage rite. Miss Hoy was followed by the maids of honor, who spread the bridal carpet upon which the couple were to kneel. Following the maids of honor came the six official witnesses required by the Russian law.

One of the prettiest features of the ceremony was the exchange of rings and the crowning of both bride and bridegroom. The marriage crowns were brought from the Greek church in New York City and were of silver, richly ornamented with jewels. The officiating priest embraced the bridegroom, wishing him peace and happiness, and the kissed the bride, the maids of honor raising her veil.

The ceremony was followed by a bridal feast, after which the newly married couple departed on a short wedding journey in the South. On their return to Washington they will take up their residence at Chevy Chase, where Mr. Regestvensky has taken a house for the winter.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 20.—Judge Pennypacker was today inaugurated governor of Pennsylvania. The other new State officers at the same time were inducted into office. The inaugural procession was one of the most imposing ever seen in Harrisburg. Congressman M. E. Olmsted was chief marshal of the parade. A leading feature was the fine appearance and marching of the National Guard. The inaugural ceremonies took place at noon on the west side of the capitol in the presence of the members of the general assembly, State officials and numerous other spectators.

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 20.—The inauguration of Col. S. W. T. Lanham as Governor of Texas took place today in the presence of a great crowd of friends, members of the legislature and other visitors from all parts of the State. At the same time the other State officers chosen at the November election took the oath of office in turn. The inaugural ceremonies were the most brilliant in the history of the State. Tonight the inaugural ball takes place in the capitol, which has been elaborately decorated for the occasion with yards of bunting, hundreds of flags and a profusion of colored incandescent lights.

IT WAS A BOLD HOLDUP

Southern Pacific Agent Relieved of About $600.

W. D. Phillips, ticket agent for the Southern Pacific Company at this point, had an experience yesterday morning that he would not care to have repeated.

He had just commenced work when he had occasion to cash one or two vouchers for railroad men. This was done and the money drawer left on the top of the safe. Mr. Phillips then sat down to his desk and prepared the papers for his day's work. While engaged in this work he heard the jingle of money and turning around he was confronted by a masked man who held a revolver, covering him. The intruder then proceeded to empty the drawer of its contents, and while doing so kept Mr. Phillips under cover.

The robber entered the room by the door leading from the ladies' waiting room and was upon Mr. Phillips before he had a chance to protect himself.

The first thing Mr. Phillips knew he had a revolver stuck in his face and seen the money being transferred from the drawer to the pocket of the masked man but he was powerless to act.

The gunner of the building was in about the same fix. As he saw the man take the money he made a move and was treated with the same courtesy as was accorded Mr. Phillips.

After taking all in sight or handy the fellow backed out of the same door he had entered and made good his escape.

As near as can be learned the amount of money taken was nearly $600 and may be more.

Many conflicting stories are afloat about the course the man took after leaving the ticket office. Some say he jumped between two box cars and went north while it is also stated that after leaving the room he passed down the V & T track and went behind the buildings to the rear of the Frisch establishment.

From a description to the police the man was about five feet four inches tall, wore a double-breasted coat, a soft hat and had on tan colored shoes. He wore a black mask and false beard and moustache.

As soon as the police department was notified of the occurrence at least twenty officers were detailed upon the case, but up to 10 o'clock last evening they had been unable to find any one corresponding to the description given. A thorough search of the river below town was made and other places where people of this class would naturally take to were visited, but the man seems to have dropped out of sight. Descriptions of the man have been sent to all the towns adjoining and it is thought that he will be apprehended.

A Welcome Visitor

E. H. Prentice, ex-division agent at this point, was among the visitors in Reno yesterday. Mr. Prentice is now general traveling passenger agent of the entire Southern Pacific Company, and is making as many friends in his different trips as he enjoys here. He returned to San Francisco last night. He says Reno is one of the coming towns of the coast and a warm spot will always exist in his heart for the metropolis of Nevada.

WILL BUILD SHOPS

What the Southern Pacific Expect to Do at Reno

A railroad man who was in Winnemucca yesterday says he was shown the blue prints for the proposed works of the Southern Pacific Company at Reno.

The round house will be a mammoth one, constructed of brick and stone, containing thirty stalls.

There will be eight miles of side-tracks constructed in the yards there, and the shops will be double the capacity of those at Wadsworth.

No active work has yet been begun at Reno. There is a strong suspicion that the railroad company has been holding off until the meeting of the legislature in order that the old State prison grounds might be purchased.

If this deal is accomplished the shops will be located just a mile from the Union passenger depot. — Silver State.

Very Sick

Mrs. Fred L. White was reported as very ill last night and medical attendance is deemed necessary at all times. Some time ago the lady contracted a cold and seemed to recover from it in a few days. However, something in the nature of a set-back has taken place and last night she was reported as being very sick and some apprehension is felt as to the ultimate outcome.

Reported Robbery

Word reached Reno yesterday that the saloon at Wedekind was robbed or rather an attempt to rob it was made Monday night. It is said that a man entered the saloon and commanded the proprietor to deliver up, but that the latter drew a revolver and fired three shots after the marauder, none of which took effect.

Marriage Licenses

Business in the marrying line has been somewhat dull lately but the following names have been recorded in the black book since The Journal's last report.

John Everett and Amanda Green, both of Stockton, Cal.
Manuel P. Brazil and Emma Hoskins of Tulare, Cal.

Considerably Better

Morris Forman who came nearly losing his life at the stock corrals Sunday, was reported as doing nicely yesterday. He will be able to be about in a short while.

SILVER PEAK IS AGAIN REVIVING That Once Famed Mining District Is Now Coming to the Front.

The once famous Silver Peak mining district in Esmeralda county, Nevada, southeast of the Tonopah district, is another field that is experiencing a revival and giving promise of awakening to another period of production after a long sleep. The Tonopah Miner says "Parties in from the Silver Peak country speak encouragingly of the condition of things there and say there is more activity apparent there now than at any other time in its history."

On the Silver Peak properties, which are owned by the Blair estate of Philadelphia, forty men are employed getting the mines in shape for practical work. The Tonopah Mining Company, which recently bonded a property near the peak, employs ten men and is opening up a promising claim. A large number of prospectors are at work in and around the Peak, and some valuable ledges are being opened up.

The Silver Peak district was a great one in years long past. The property of the Silver Peak Mining Company is credited with producing $1,000,000 by free milling processes from ores that were largely base, and the Mary and other mines were once important producers. The district attracted much attention in early days and few districts have been more studied and reported upon by mining engineers. H. W. Turner, late of the United States Geological Survey, has written of this district as follows:

"The first conservative report which has appeared in print appears to be that of R. H. Stretch on what was then known as the 'Silver Peak District.' This district comprises the veins carrying chiefly silver values, and includes the Vandebilt, Pocotillo, Quartz Hill and Sisson groups of veins. Lying west of the Silver Peak district is the district then known as the 'Red Mountain district,' in which the veins carry chiefly gold values. This district covers the larger part of the summit of Mineral ridge, and in it are located the chief mines of the present Silver Peak Mining Company, the Drinkwater and associated mines, the Western Soldier, the Last Chance, the Mary mine, and the mines on the summit of Mineral ridge worked at present by the Valcalda Brothers, the Crescent mine, the Eagle mine, and others in the vicinity. In the subsequent reports of Dr. A. E. White, J. Ross Browne, Rossiter W. Raymond and J. E. Clayton, the mines of the vicinity of Silver Peak are likewise referred to the two districts described in Stretch's report."

"According to J. Ross Browne the first discovery and location of mineral lodes in this region was made in the Red Mountain district in 1863, and a 3-stamp mill was erected during the next year. In 1884 the mines of the Silver Peak district were discovered and a 10-stamp mill was built in the fall of 1885, which ran for a short time with moderate success. The property then being sold to a company of Eastern capitalists, the mines were worked on a more liberal scale. According to R. H. Stretch this 10-stamp mill treated chiefly the silver ores, also containing gold of the Pocotillo veins. J. Ross Browne, who visited the region in 1870, states that the principal gold veins, the Crowning Glory and the Drinkwater, were worked by the Silver Peak Mining Company in 1860, and the present 30-stamp mill was built prior to 1870. Subsequently other mills were erected by other companies. All of the ore of the district appears to have been treated by free milling processes. In recent years, however, the cyanide process has been used to work over the tailings, and some galena ores have been shipped to the smelter. In 1900 the mill of the Mary mine, together with the cyanide plant attached to it and the 4-stamp mill of Ledy and McAfee were the only reduction works in operation."

DEATH OF A PIONEER

Leaves a Wife and Eight Children to Mourn His Loss.

The Journal is called upon to announce the death of George Schaeffer. His demise occurred yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Schaeffer has been sick for the past two weeks or more with pneumonia and during the last two days he seemed to rally only to pass away as stated above. He was a native of Germany and 74 years of age. He leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his loss. Mrs. Annie Byone, Mrs. Mary Barton, Mrs. Susie Barton, Mrs. Flora Jacobs, Mrs. Emma Irish, George Schaeffer, Jr., and William Schaeffer.

Probably George Schaeffer was one of the best known men in this State and Eastern California. For years he conducted one of the biggest mills in Truckee and in the lumber business he accumulated a fortune. He was also well known in fraternal circles.

He was a member of and Past High Priest of Donner Chapter, No. 39, R. A. M., of Truckee, and also a member and Past Master of Truckee Lodge, F. & A. M. He was also a member of the K. of P. lodge of that city and his name could be found in the archives of the Odd Fellows of the same town.

The funeral will take place from the Masonic Temple next Sunday and will be under the supervision of the Masonic Order of this city.

An Important Case

Among the important cases that will come up in the United States Court will be that of Meyers vs. Jacobs. This is a suit in regard to the will of Ben J. Lachman, deceased.

Mrs. Etta Meyers, the eldest daughter of deceased, will endeavor to change the will left by her father.

This promises to be a long drawn-out battle between the legal rights of the coast.

The case will be called tomorrow and defendant will be represented by Attorneys Black, Cheney and Wren, while the other side have engaged W. E. F. Deal and Torreyson & Summerfield. This matter involves the settlement of a vast amount of property mostly located in Reno.

TONOPAH MATTERS

Frank Golden Speaks of the Camp in a Convincing Way.

Yesterday a Journal reporter had a talk with Frank Golden about Tonopah. Although the talk was not intended for publication Mr. Golden's enthusiasm about the camp seemed so great that a few words may not be out of order. Mr. Golden said in part:

"Without doubt Tonopah is the richest and most promising camp not only on the coast but the world."

Prospectors have worked in the vicinity and started a shaft upon ground that did not give any appearance of carrying ore but upon reaching a depth of fifty feet or possibly more veins have been encountered that have and will make Tonopah famous.

"In the next year or so the growth of the town will be wonderful. People are coming in from everywhere and most of them have money in which they will work and develop properties that are untouched as yet."

Continuing Mr. Golden said: "Tonopah is a good proposition for a poor man. All the rich finds have been made by comparatively poor men and the field for new discoveries is as well defined as it is unknown."

Mr. Golden will leave for Tonopah in a few days and will be gone about a week or more. He will do some extensive work on some of the claims he has.

Sentenced to Twenty Years

Yesterday morning Judge Currier sentenced A. Burns to twenty years in the State prison. He was taken to Carson in the afternoon heavily ironed.

It will be remembered that Burns was charged with having robbed a Swede in Wadsworth some time ago, and in a trial recently completed in the district court the defendant was found guilty by a jury of his peers. It is said that the case will be appealed.

THE ORGANIZATION

THE appears to have been but little friction in the organization of either of the branches of our State legislature Monday. The election of Speaker of the Assembly, was of the most importance, and The Journal is confident that the caucus made a wise choice in the selection of Mr. Wilson of Elko for that position. He has had considerable legislative experience, and with his knowledge of parliamentary laws and usages, will make, we are confident, an efficient and impartial presiding officer. The subordinate officials chosen by the caucuses are, so far as we know, competent, and no fault can be found with them in that respect. Geographically, however, it seems not a little strange that Washoe county, with its preponderance of population and seven members in the lower house should have been so slighted by the Assembly caucus. In addition to her excess in population and membership, it was here that the hardest fight was made, and successfully too, for the fusion State and legislative tickets and she was entitled to greater recognition than she received at the hands of the representatives in the lower house. But this is of minor importance, provided it is not indicative of a disposition to effect a combination against Washoe county, in legislative matters, as has been attempted and consummated at former sessions, but that we can hardly imagine is contemplated by any considerable number of the Democratic or Silver party members of either branch of the present legislature. We hope not at least. Not so much for Washoe's sake, but because such an ill advised element of discord would obstruct if it would not absolutely prevent such legislation as will inure to the benefit of the entire State, and justify the confidence of the people in intrusting to the hands of the fusion party the management of the executive and legislative affairs of the commonwealth.

Of the action of the Senate caucus, Washoe has nothing to complain. She was treated fairly. Our Senators claimed no more than was due, and the county was awarded a couple of the important offices of that body. But the matter of "loaves and fishes" is in itself of too little consequence, for the time and space we have accorded it, and unless it should prove indicative of a disposition to further discriminate against this county to the detriment of the interests of the entire State, The Journal will drop the subject for all time.

THE REASON WHY

IRVING M. SCOTT received but one vote in the Republican legislative caucus in California for United States senator. Having been prominent in Republican politics and a liberal contributor to national and local campaign funds, we wondered that he manifested no greater strength in the senatorial contest. The Montpelier (Vt.) Argus gives the following explanation:

Senator Perkins, of California, is renominated by the Republican caucus and will succeed himself. His only opponent was Irving M. Scott, the man who built the Oregon. As the head of the shipbuilding company that built the favorite vessel in the navy Scott might have had some strength for sentimental reasons, but his conduct in connection with the visit of the McKinley's to California destroyed all hope of preferment for him. Mrs. McKinley was taken seriously ill during the Presidential trip through the west and for sometime her life was in danger. Scott's palatial mansion was placed at the service of the President and Mrs. McKinley was taken there. After the party had gone home and when the local committee was settling the bills for entertaining the party, Scott put in a bill for several thousand dollars for the use of his house. The committee paid it, for they feared if they did not he would send it to the President. But Scott has not been a popular man in California since that time. He received one vote in the caucus.

LEARNING TO BOYCOTT

THE following are translations of placards posted on every fence and blank wall in Caracas. Venezuela is learning what a boycott is.

"It is impossible to understand how, in view of the outrages that the German nation has inflicted upon our national dignity and sovereignty, fathers of families still persist in having their children educated in a German institution. It is only in countries where the sentiment of patriotism has been extinguished that one witnesses such shameful action. Let us educate our children in the sacred institutions of our native land."

"All Venezuelans are earnestly entreated not to purchase any article of German or English manufacture during the pending controversy with those nations. At the same time the press of the republic is requested to reproduce this in every issue."

ELEVENTH HOUR BREVETING

AT the earnest solicitation of his friends, who want to be able properly to call him 'General' after he retires to private life, Lieut.-Colonel J. A. Johnson has postponed his resignation from the army for a few days says a Washington dispatch. Col. Johnson is assistant adjutant general. Through the efforts of his friends the President has agreed to appoint him a brigadier-general. He will resign the next day as Gen. Johnson. This system, growing in the army and navy, is one of the means whereby officers are enabled to retire on higher rank than that of their service and thus draw more money from the government as retired officers than they are entitled to.—Ex.

ON THE WRONG TRACK

CONGRESSMAN GRIFFITH of Indiana has introduced a proposed amendment to the constitution to prohibit the accumulation of private fortunes beyond the sum of $10,000,000, and to condemn any excess as a public nuisance, full of peril, and to forfeit it to the United States Treasury. Mr. Griffin will have a hard job to explain the value of his proposition. Who shall decide, anyway, what amount of private fortune is excessive and perilous? Less than a century ago, a million might have been looked upon as too much for one man to have. Now millionaires are too numerous to attract much notice. To Mr. Griffith, $10,000,000 seems the point where the line should be drawn. To other men $1,000,000 might seem enough for one man to have. The Indiana congressman is evidently working on the wrong track. With no special privileges conferred by congressional legislation, the accumulation of such mammoth fortunes as are possessed by the Rockefeller ilk would be an impossibility. Reform in legislation is all that is needed, and that can be effected under our present constitution.

MISTOOK OUR MEANING

THE Carson News is mistaken in its inference as to The Journal's objection to the revenue law creating the Board of Assessors. The weak point in the law is that it confers the power of property valuation throughout the State upon local officials whose actions are liable to be, and which in some instances doubtless have been, influenced by local conditions, political and otherwise, in their own counties. Such power should only be vested in a board consisting of State officials who were elected by the entire people of the State and who, it is presumed, will not be influenced by local politics or other obstructions in the line of their duty—hence The Journal's advocacy of a State Board of Equalization composed of State officials, in which proposition we are glad to notice our Carson contemporary concurs.

THE Sultan of Bacedol still wants war. He is a leather colored and headed potentate in our Philippine "possessions," who thinks he is a bigger man than old Grant. He has challenged the American army a number of times, but the army has disregarded him. Now he threatens to attack if the Americans do not. The soldiers have not fired a shot in the last six months, except at some robber bands, and they probably do not want to waste ammunition on the Sultan. If they keep quiet he will wear his enthusiasm out in uttering defiance.

MUNSEY in the newspaper business claimed that advertising must be made subordinate to reading matter. Munsey as a magazine publisher, we believe, used to justify the great amount of advertising printed by saying that it made possible the publishing of good magazines at a small price. The rule should be in both cases to give as much reading matter as the advertising and other patronage will afford.

MARCONI thinks one result of the application of wireless telegraphy will be that every ocean steamer will publish a daily newspaper, receiving the news from the system. But managers of steamship lines are skeptical. They doubt whether passengers will want a daily newspaper, and say that most people who cross the ocean want to get away from the news and everything else of general interest.

The Man About Town...

Office
Same Old
Place

The Man About Town does not want to be called a fault finder, in any sense of the word. It is simply the object of the writer to call attention to a few little things, the remedying of which might tend to the improvement of the town and advance the general interests of the State.

Now, there is Virginia street. No criticism has been published in relation to its razor-back condition, which reminds one of a Texas racing hog, but when the city dads allow an excavation in the street to remain open over night without lights to warn drivers and pedestrians of the location of the same, this would seem like criminal negligence on the part of the officers who have charge of such work. The taxpayers would be held responsible should the Man About Town injure any of his limbs—whether drunk or sober.

"Get away." The Man About Town mentioned this subject in his last series of articles in The Journal. The robber made quite a "get away" at the depot yesterday morning. And, if the words of a gentleman who is supposed to have interviewed the man who relieved the Southern Pacific Co. of the funds is to be taken, Uncle Sam was quite fortunate in the structural design of the present postoffice quarters, as report has it that the robber said he would have investigated the financial condition of that public institution had it not been that the exit was so constructed that it might have prevented the escape which was necessary for him to make in order to fully enjoy the benefits to be derived from the ill-gotten gains.

The Man About Town tried to make a record yesterday as a detective, but made a most brilliant failure. He attempted to run down the man who held up the Southern Pacific agent. After interviewing some six or eight persons, who were supposed to have seen the robber, he gave it up as a bad job as all the description that could be given was that he wore tan shoes. They must all of them been afraid to look up.

Dislocated Her Shoulder

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by S. J. Hodgkinson.

HONOR VETERAN EDITOR

Colonel William C. Church's Friends Remember Him

Special to The Journal:

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Friends of Col. William C. Church, the veteran editor of the Army and Navy Journal, as a token of their high regard for him, and in celebration of the entrance of the publication on the fortieth year of its existence under his management, have completed arrangements for a complimentary dinner at DeJonic's this evening.

The Army and Navy Journal was founded in 1863, and it had its origin in the patriotic impulses which were stimulated by the civil war. Interested with Col. Church in the establishment of the journal were Edward Everett Hale, James Russell Lowell, Henry W. Longfellow, William Cullen Bryant, Charles Sumner, John Jay, Henry Ward Beecher and other men of note.

TO HEAR FROM JAPAN

Annual Meeting of New York State Bar Association

Special to The Journal:

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 20.—Many eminent members of the bench and bar were present today at the opening of the annual meeting of the New York State Bar Association. President John G. Milburn of Buffalo called the gathering to order and delivered his annual address, taking as his subject "The Statute Law of the State." The annual address before the association will be delivered this evening by Dr. Rokutcho Masujima, one of the masters of jurisprudence in Japan. Dr. Masujima will speak of the present position of Japanese law and jurisprudence.

CHICKENS ON THE ROOST

Seventh Annual Show of Egg-Machines at Chicago

Special to The Journal:

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 20.—The seventh annual pet stock show of the National Fanciers and Breeders' Association is now open and will be the center of interest among poultry lovers until it closes, January 24.

The largest display of birds in the association's history is offered. Every State in the Mississippi Valley is represented, and the competition among exhibitors is lively.

One of the most striking features of the show is the exhibit of pigeons, which contains over 1000 birds. Turkeys, ducks, geese and chickens are also shown in great numbers.

ICE YACHT RACES

International Race Meeting Being Held at Kalamazoo, Michigan

Special to The Journal:

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Jan. 20.—Ice yachts from various parts of the United States and Canada are gathered at Gull Lake, twelve miles from here, for the big international race meet to be held there during the next few days. From all indications the meet will be the biggest affair of the kind ever pulled off in America. The entries come from Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Oshkosh, Toledo, Detroit, Muskegon, Battle Creek, London, Ont., Red Bank, N. J., and various other places. A prominent competitor is the Jack Frost of the Hudson Bay fleet, now champion of the world.

TO COLONIZE NEGROES

The Liberian Colonization Society is Shipping the Colored Man Away

Special to The Journal:

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 20.—The third cargo of negroes from Savannah for Liberia sails today on the steamer Donnalde of New York. The enterprise is in charge of the Liberian colonization society of Birmingham, which has already sent several hundred negroes to the West African coast, where they are reported as contented and doing well.

Aguinaldo Would Borrow

Special to The Journal:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Secretary Root has sent to Congress a remarkable petition from Aguinaldo asking for the loan of twenty million dollars for the Philippines, and a further credit of eighty millions.

Venezuela Rebels Defeated

HIGH TREASON

The First Case of the Kind in England For Three Quarters of a Century

Special to The Journal:

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The first trial for high treason England has known in nearly three-quarters of a century was called at the bar today. The case is that of Col. Arthur Lynch, member of Parliament for Galway, who was arrested on June 11 on landing in England from the continent, on the charge of high treason in connection with the part he took in the South African war.

Col. Lynch was sent to South Africa as a war correspondent, but he entered active service on the side of the Boers and commanded the Second Irish Corps. It was while serving against the British forces that he was elected in November, 1901, to represent County Galway in the British Parliament.

Charged With Selfishness

"Do you see that man over there?" said the old veteran, pointing out an elderly man who was resplendent in a frock coat and a silk hat.

"He quite occupies the foreground," said his friend. "I don't see how I could help seeing him."

"Well, he's the most selfish man I ever knew."

"Isn't that a rather harsh charge to bring?" said the friend again. "I've known some pretty selfish men in my time, and so have you. He looks most generous."

"Wait until I tell you what he did to me," said the old veteran. "We were in the civil war, same regiment, same company. He was in the front rank, I in the rear. At the battle of Manassas we were standing in rank waiting for orders. That distinguished looking individual over there stood just in front of me. He stepped out of line for a minute—why, the Lord only knows. Anyway, a Johnny Reb bullet came along and ploughed through my cheek. You see the scar. He's a selfish man, and no mistake."

Don't Worry

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by S. J. Hodgkinson.

Drop into the Reno Market, 25 Commercial Row, and inspect the good things to eat on the delicacy counter. Today we have cold roast beef and cold boiled ham, potato salad with cream dressing, shrimp salad mayonnaise dressing, all kinds fresh fish, shell fish, lobster, shrimps, clams, etc. We make a specialty of fresh New York canned oysters, large and fresh, at 20c per dozen. Fancy creamery butter, none quite so good, 50c a roll. Dist

Edinborough, at 10 to 1 in the betting, was third. With a better boy up Jim Gore would certainly have won

The second race was for a distance of 1 1-8 miles and was won by Sleeping Child by three lengths. Sleeping Child was 8 to 1 in the betting and was ridden by Jockey Connell. St. Sever, at 5 to 1 in the betting and ridden by Waterbury was second. Bonnie Lissak at 5 to 1, with Birkenruth up was third

The third race was a one-mile selling event and was won by Lena, at 4 to 1 in the betting, ridden by Jockey W. Waldo. Sir Hampton, the 12 to 5 favorite, was second and Rosalie, at 15 to 1, was third

The fourth race was down on the card as the best of the day's meeting. It was a 3-4 mile handicap and had four starters—Kenilworth, Money Muss, Flush of Gold and Sylvia Talbot. Durazzo was scratched. Money Muss was made a 3 to 2 favorite, with Kenilworth, a 2 to 1 second choice. Sylvia Talbot was as good as 15 to 1 in the betting. Kenilworth off none too good took things easy until the stretch was reached when Tommy Burns let him out and he won handily by two lengths. Money Muss, ridden by Donnelly, was second and Sylvia Talbot was third. The distance was too short for Flush of Gold.

The fifth race was for a distance of 1 1-8 miles and was won by Katie Walcott, at 6 to 1 in the betting. Ultruda, at 5 to 1 was second and Kitty Kelly, as good as 10 to 1, was third

The last race of the day's meeting was a 7-8 mile selling race and was won by Epicure, at 4 to 1 in the betting ridden by Jockey Bullman. Epicure was an easy winner by one length. Mi Reina at 2 to 1 and the favorite, ridden by Jockey Donnelly, was second and Clausus, a 30 to 1 shot, with Mindet up, was third.

Jockey W. Waldo succeeded in landing two winners today—Evander, favorite in the first and Lena, a 4 to 1 shot, in the third

Tommy Burns rode a grand race in the big handicap when he landed Kenilworth, carrying 127 pounds, an easy winner by two lengths

GOOD NEWS

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by E. J. Hodgkinson.

What the People Outside of Reno Are Doing

Part of the machinery at the Butters plant in Six-mile Canyon was started yesterday and everything worked as smooth as a clock. It is thought the entire plant will be in operation by the end of the week. The men have been put on eight-hour shifts.—Enterprise.

Would it not be a good business proposition for the county commissioners to have signs painted and hung upon all the iron bridges in the county warning the traveling public not to drive across bridges faster than a walk under penalty of a heavy fine? Without these signs teams are driven across these bridges in a trot. The result of this in a few years will be the ruin of the bridges.—Elko Independent.

A big sanitarium is one of the possibilities for Elko in the near future. Mr. Mayhem, the Denver capitalist, has interested Dr. Beecher, a noted physician of Boston, in the enterprise and steps have been taken toward its consummation, says the Elko Independent. A survey of a pipe line and flume to convey hot water from the pools near the lower bridge across the Humboldt to the point opposite the pump house was made by Engineer Davis last week. The plan is to build the sanitarium on the bluff opposite the pump house and have large plunging baths at the foot of the bluff. It is stated that Mr. Mayhem and Dr. Beecher will be here within a month to further canvass the merits of the proposition. The Independent hopes it will be a success.

Yesterday in the district court before Judge Murphy, the case of Wiggins vs. Louis Berrum, one of Washoe county's wealthy citizens, was re-tried on an appeal from the Justice Court, wherein Wiggins had procured a judgment from a jury.

Although the suit was for the small sum of $75, it was vigorously contested both in the lower court by Attorney Chantz, who appeared for the defendant Berrum, and Attorney Sweeney, for Wiggins.—Appeal.

Conductor Harry Holland, representing the Order of Railway Conductors, brakeman George B. Ackerman, representing the Order of Trainmen, and I. M. Conkey, representing the Order of Locomotive Firemen, have gone to Carson to appear before the legislature asking that they pass a law to the effect that the Southern Pacific shall not be allowed to haul more than fifty cars in one train and that they add another brakeman when hauling over thirty-five cars.—Lovelock Argus.
